

Committee Meeting 4/21/11

In attendance Dennis C., Greg D., Ron B., Geoff P., Roger R., Chris J.

Camporee

Are there enough Drivers

Roger to haul equipment Geoff and Ron are going

Need drivers

Mileage cost, confusion need to resolve

Ron to develop a repayment plan to be presented at the next meeting.

Scout-o rama

Shifts by Patrol or Other

Dennis to deliver first aid kit

Roger to bring bricks for demonstration

PLC to inform their patrol of their shift

Dennis to be there in the afternoon

Backpacking trip

Skyline to the Sea trail route combinations

Trail is in great shape.

Dennis to have route options on Monday.

Scout conditioning is a concern.

No bouldering will be allowed since rocks are mossy.

Scouts who need equipment will be directed to rent (Sports

Basement is very reasonable)

Q&A meeting

Additions to the list submitted

Coupon Book Final push

School is inclined to approve books sales at the pick up line

Announce that Monday is the last call for book return w/o penalty. Then we will determine if we will need to return the books to the council with a 25% penalty.

Code of Conduct

Enforcement

No scout should feel threatened

It should always be a safe environment.

When code is violated first warning is verbal with the scout.

The second is with the scout and parent.

A peer court of conduct

Scout leadership to be encouraged to complete Youth

Protection Training.

Patrol Campout standards

Checkout of gear and return of gear

Patrol box to be returned with clean towels.

Add a first aid kit to patrol box.

Food Costs

Paying amongst the Patrol to the Troop

Patrol will cover costs unless Troop help is needed.

Summer Camp update

More scouts wanting to go

Adults in a tent and scouts in platforms

Enough Drivers

New ASMs needed

Logan's Dad Ryan may be willing

Mel Hagashi

Mathew Boman's dad

Jim D. possibly

Felix Vartan

Finances

A financial report to be provided before each committee meeting and it to be reviewed and approved at troop meeting.

Set a goal for the purchase of a troop trailer and present our goal to the parents and ask for donations.

Troop website improvement to be announced on Monday.